

EMORY A. FOX IS CHOSEN FOR SCHOOL BOARD

Emory A. Fox, former director and present non-member secretary of the Cumberland Twp. School Board, was appointed by the Adams County Court Monday afternoon to serve the unexpired term of Mrs. Letha Hartman, who resigned from the board in September.

Decision of the court came after receipt of petitions asking the appointment of Mr. Fox and Robert Weaver. The court held a hearing Monday morning at which the qualifications of both candidates were outlined.

In handing down its decision naming Mr. Fox to the term as school director, the court noted: "The decision was rendered difficult because there was no reason why either man should not be a member of the board. Both are equally capable individuals, both would make excellent school directors. But since only one could be chosen some basis had to be established for a choice."

"Taking into consideration the many complex details of establishment of jointures, the complex details of the present building program being carried out by the Gettysburg Joint School Board, and needing some basis on which to choose one of the two excellent men, the court chose the standard of experience. While fully believing that Mr. Weaver could soon familiarize himself with the complex details of the joint school operation and building program, the court notes that Mr. Fox already has that experience, having served as a school board member and having served since as a non-member secretary of the board. As a result Mr. Fox was chosen."

Mrs. Hartman's term expires in 1955.

HOME COOKING IS OUTDONE BY FACTORY: OYLER

With seven new customers for food born every minute of the day and night, we are doubly fortunate in that in Adams County there are both thriving food producing and processing industries to stabilize our economy," Dr. James R. Oyler, technical director for Knouse Foods Cooperative, told the local Rotary Club at its meeting Monday evening at the YWCA.

Delivering his classification talk as a member, Dr. Oyler, who in World War II helped develop the special rations for the U. S. Air Force, told the Rotarians: "With due regard for our efficient housewives, food products can be manufactured today less expensively, with a better retention of nutritional qualities and with greater appetite appeal than they can be prepared in most domestic kitchens."

"It is interesting to consider the effect that our local canning industries have on the economic status of Adams County."

Very Stable Industry

"Not only are the profits of the growers and workers on their payroll disbursed in this area, but the many thousands of dollars paid out annually through local processing industry payrolls is spent or placed in banks in this immediate vicinity. To Gettysburg the traveling public is important, but as I look over this group of business and professional people I am sure they are all aware of the importance of the county fruit growing and processing industries in their respective fields of endeavor. It should be remembered that food

Takes Exceptions To Master's Report

Exceptions to the master's report recommending dismissal of divorce proceedings by Roger W. Guise against Barbara Ann Guise were filed Monday with the county prothonotary.

Among the points in error listed by the attorney for the plaintiff were: "That the master erred in finding as a fact that the parties never established a marital domicile of habitation," and "that his findings of fact were not sufficient to establish the averments of desertion and concluding that the plaintiff is not entitled to a decree in divorce."

Mr. Guise states that the master, Eugene R. Hartman, "erred in failing to find that the averment of desertion in the complaint had been sustained and erred in failing to find that the plaintiff was entitled to a decree under the divorce law."

Red Cross Needs Used Clothing

The Adams County Chapter of the Red Cross issued an urgent appeal today for donations of good, used clothing.

"We have been receiving so many appeals for clothing, especially for children, that our supply has been exhausted and we now have nothing at all to offer needy folk who come to us," said Mrs. Raymond P. Hill, executive secretary of the Red Cross chapter.

"Yesterday there must have been 10 families in here for help. One family was entirely without underclothing and in another there was one small child without shoes."

"The Red Cross wants to be able to help these people who come to us in trouble but we do need a large supply of used clothing—from infants' wear through all sizes up to adults," Mrs. Hill said.

TELLS OF CARE FOR RETARDED KIDDIES IN YORK

Details of the operation of the Day Care Center established by the York County Chapter of the Association for Retarded Children were outlined Monday evening at a meeting of the Adams County chapter held at Christ Lutheran Church, Rev. Herman G. Stumpfle Jr., temporary chairman of the Adams County group, presided.

Mrs. Arthur Clopper, president of the York Chapter, and Miss Dorothy May Clingan, also of the York group, told how the chapter started a center for training retarded children a year ago on a three sessions-a-week basis with 2 1/2 hours per session. This year the center is operating on a five-day week, five hours a day and is receiving state reimbursement for its teaching staff.

Twenty-two youngsters attended the center last year with the ages ranging from five years, seven months through 18 years.

Need Help From Public

She described the registration day marking the opening of the York County center as "one to tug the heart strings. We had expected the parents to bring the children in and then leave with them. But when these retarded children saw each other, they seemed to recognize instantly that they were with equals."

MORE DONATIONS TO CHEST FUND

Weekend contributions of $266.15 to the Gettysburg Community Chest boosted total receipts of the Chest campaign to $14,334.70.

The drive is $6,165.30 short of its $20,500 goal for the support of six local organizations, the Boy Scouts, Girl Scouts, YWCA, Recreation Board, Library and Civic Nurse during 1954.

To date, 1,622 contributors have sent donations to the Community Chest office of Philip R. Bickle, Baltimore St.

Mrs. Fred G. Pfeiffer, secretary of the Community Chest, is at that office each morning from 10 o'clock to 12 noon.

Campaign spokesmen expressed the hope for additional contributions from those who have already donated as well as from present non-contributors.

WINDOWS SHOT OUT

Charles M. Sheely, Springs Ave., reported to borough police this morning that several windows had been shot out of a garage at 231 Hanover St. on a property owned by his son, Dr. Raymond P. Sheely.

FBI Director Will Not Accept Responsibility For Mr. Truman

NEW YORK (AP)—The New York Herald Tribune said today that FBI Director J. Edgar Hoover refuses to accept any responsibility for former President Truman's decision to retain Harry Dexter White in the government after an unfavorable FBI report on him.

A Washington dispatch to the newspaper by Homer Bigart said: "Even though Hoover was present at a luncheon conference on the issue, it was learned that he believes he was there simply as an observer."

Hoover's boss, Tom C. Clark — then attorney general and now a Supreme Court justice — and the late Fred M. Vinson agreed with Truman at the conference that the proper course was to let White take an International Monetary Fund post. Vinson, who later became chief justice, was at the conference because as secretary of the Treasury he had proposed White as executive director for the United States of the monetary fund.

Hoover does not interpret his

GUEST SPEAKER THURSDAY FOR PTA SESSION

Mrs. Austin H. Fellenbaum, Lancaster, former Gettysburg High School faculty member who for the last 23 years has been conducting a kindergarten in Lancaster and who is an alumna member of the board of trustees of Gettysburg College, will be the guest speaker at the November meeting of the Gettysburg Parent-Teachers Association Thursday evening.

MRS. FELLEBAUM

Mrs. Fellenbaum will speak on "The Importance of Parents and Teachers."

After addressing the general PTA meeting in the high school auditorium at 7:30 o'clock, Mrs. Fellenbaum, who is remembered by many here as the former Miss Edith Hollinger, will talk to parents of grade school children about elementary problems. Mrs. Fellenbaum with a staff of three helpers operates a kindergarten for 73 children at the First Presbyterian Church of Lancaster. It started with a group of 10 kiddies in 1930 and now is divided into three groups, nursery, kindergarten and a pre-school preparedness group for three-, four- and five-year-olds.

While Mrs. Fellenbaum speaks to the grade school children's parents, the Rev. Edwirth E. Korte, Gettysburg College chaplain, will talk to parents of junior and senior high school students at a separate session in the band room after the general meeting has concluded.

There will be movies for children who accompany their parents to the meeting and a social hour with refreshments will follow the meeting.

Chaplain To Speak At Scout Session

Rev. Edwirth Korte, chaplain at Gettysburg College, will be guest speaker at the annual dinner meeting and Ladies' Night program of Conewago Boy Scout district Thursday at 6:30 p.m. in the YWCA home, Hanover.

Eagle awards will be presented to Max Sponseller, Hanover, member of Post 101, St. Mark's Lutheran Church; James Zacharias, Hanover, member of Post 105, St. Matthew's Lutheran Church, and George Snyder, member of Post 84, Littlestown.

Talks will be given by explorers who participated in the Canadian canoe trip, naval cruise and training sessions at Camp Schiff, Mendham, N. J.

Remarks will be offered by W. Jack Watson, executive of York-Adams Area council, and by Charles Harris, district field executive. Reports will be presented by the nominating committee for the annual election.

Skids Into Auto; Damage Totals $450

Damage totaled $450, but none were injured, when two cars collided this morning at 6:10 o'clock on the Lincoln Highway seven miles east of here.

State police, who investigated, said Leo J. Herman, 25, Breckenridge St., was driving east when he approached a slower moving vehicle. He applied his brakes and his car skidded across the highway into the vehicle of Vernon H. Kepner, 20, R. 3, who was driving west.

REV. J. V. GUSS ACCEPTS CALL TO TURBOTVILLE

The Rev. Jerome V. Guss, pastor of the Addison-Confluence Lutheran charge in Somerset County, has announced that he will accept the call extended to him by the Turbotville Charge of the Central Pennsylvania Synod of the United Lutheran church in America, effective December 31. He read his resignation to his congregation Sunday.

During the 10 years of Rev. Guss' ministry in the Addison-Confluence Charge, the churches over paid their benevolence, Lutheran World Action, appeals for Camp Sequanota, and CHEY and raised large sums of money for various long-range programs. One of the last achievements in the Confluence Church was to completely remodel the church and place a $10,000 pipe organ in the sanctuary.

Before going to Confluence in 1944, Rev. Guss was pastor of the Marklesburg-Saxton Lutheran Charge which he accepted upon graduation from the Lutheran Seminary in 1939.

WOMEN PLEASD WITH COLLEGE AAUW APPROVAL

"Following the announcement Monday of AAUW approval of Gettysburg College, the local branch of AAUW is especially happy to extend to every woman graduate of Gettysburg College, living in Adams County, a cordial invitation to attend the next regular meeting which is scheduled for Wednesday evening at 8 o'clock in the SCA building on the college campus. Dr. Paul S. Havens, president of Wilson College, Chambersburg, will speak."

This announcement was made this morning by the AAUW.

TRAVEL GROUP OPENS DRIVE FOR MEMBERSHIPS

The Gettysburg Travel Council membership campaign got under way this morning following a last-minute briefing session of the Council Monday evening at the Court House in which various Chamber of Commerce members urged Gettysburg citizens to contribute to the fund-raising drive.

"Approximately 30 canvassers will solicit membership fees and pledges of $10 each throughout Gettysburg and vicinity" David E. Garfinkle Jr., "Gettysburg Week" chairman, announced.

Thursday evening at 6:30 o'clock at the annual dinner of the Gettysburg Chamber of Commerce at the Hotel Gettysburg, Robert Nelson, president of the Virginia Travel Council, will speak and show a travel film, "The Billion Dollar Story."

Here And There News Collected At Random

The annual Christmas Edition of The Gettysburg Times is expected to be bigger and better than any previous edition.

A new and enthusiastic interest in the forthcoming edition, an introduction to the annual Christmas season, has aroused merchants to a new endeavor this year.

For more than a quarter of a century the annual Christmas edition was published on the Friday after Thanksgiving. This year it will be advanced two days . . . publication date being Wednesday, November 25. Merchants are preparing now to unpack their vast assortment of Christmas gift suggestions and everything will be in readiness for the early shopper when stores open the day after Thanksgiving.

The news content will be unusual this year. A special Associated Press news feature was purchased with scores of illustrations. All will be used in the edition.

In addition to the expanded news content the display advertisements this year will be more attractive than usual.

Look for the 1953 Christmas Edition November 25.

If you are one of the few skeptics who do not believe that newspaper display advertising brings results, read the following:

Sears, Roebuck and Company, with 684 stores in 47 states (it will open a store in Wyoming this year), spent the staggering amount of $34,009,500 on newspaper advertising in 1952. This is an increase of $2,437,900 over its newspaper advertising account of 1951. Thus it spent more for newspaper advertising in 1952 than it ever did in its history but it did much more business than it ever did before. The net sales volume last year was $2,932,337,701, a record high.

Their advertising account was distributed in 1,047 newspapers, 14 more than in 1951.

Ever since Sears' entry into the retail business back in 1925, its major sales promotional emphasis has always been on newspapers.

Auxiliary Of CWV Has 43 Members

Membership in the Auxiliary of the Catholic War Veterans of Bon-neville climbed to 43 with the reception of several new members at the monthly meeting Monday evening at the post home there. Mrs. Rita Claybaugh, the president, presided at the meeting at which otherwise only routine business was transacted.

A baked goods auction was held after the business meeting. The Auxiliary will meet next on December 21.

Two Men Injured When Car Hits Pole

Two men received minor injuries — cuts and bruises — when their car struck a Metropolitan Edison pole 3.2 miles south of here on the Emmitsburg Rd. at 10:30 o'clock this morning.

Thomas Turck, Lowville, N. Y., a sailor and the driver of the car, said he was forced to attempt to pass a truck on the right hand side and lost control, striking the pole.

He and a passenger in the car, William Deloush, Star Lake, N. Y., were removed to the Warner Hospital by ambulance, treated and discharged. Damage totaled $250. State police are continuing their investigation.

Municipal Authority Boosts Water Rates To Commercial Users Effective December 15

The Gettysburg Municipal Authority Monday raised its rates, to commercial users only, to permit construction of a new filter system, a new standpipe and replacement of four-inch and some six-inch mains with larger mains during the next several years.

Effective December 15, the raise, first increase in water rates in the borough since 1937, according to the authority, does not affect the household user whose rate remains unchanged.

Sewer rentals are unaffected by the water rate changes.

Minimum Charged

The new rates for commercial and industrial users included an increase of the minimum bill for use of from 1 to 550 cubic feet per month from $2 at present to $2.80. From 550 to 750 cubic feet per month the rate is increased from 15 cents per 100 cubic feet to 21 cents per 100 cubic feet. That rate also holds for all from 750 to 1,300 cubic feet per month. All over 1,300 cubic feet will be charged at a rate of $0.182 per cubic foot. The new rates are still slightly lower than the actual cost of delivering water in larger quantities, it was pointed out.

Had Loot Before Report

Police recovered part of the loot taken from Bob's Diner before the loss was reported to them, according to testimony given in the case.

Among the articles police said they found in the garage at the Wallen home in Franklintown was a rifle. When Robert A. Thompson reported a rifle stolen at his diner and gave police the serial number of the rifle, the officers told the jury, all they had to do was go into the room at the local barracks and check the rifle they had secured at the Wallen garage. The numbers checked and the rifle was returned to Thompson.

Using More Water

Up to the present, he said, the system has in effect been providing a subsidy to the commercial users by providing them with water at less than cost of the distributing the water to them.

The present filter system is becoming inadequate because of increased water consumption in the borough.

Garback told the authority board at its quarterly meeting Monday evening at the law offices of Bullett and Bullett in the First National Bank building.

New industries, new business places, new homes, are causing an increase in the use of water, but the vastly increased use of air conditioning systems and similar equipment taking large quantities of water is principally responsible for the increase, he held.

$100,000 For Filter System

The engineer recommended the construction of a 1,000,000-gallon filter capacity to the system at a cost of approximately $100,000 to take care of future needs of the community. The system will be in addition to the present filter capacity of the authority.

He also recommended construction of a new 1,000,000-gallon stand pipe to take care of the community's needs. The storage tank will cost approximately $60,000. At the present time the water system has a

GARDNER GUILTY JURY DECIDES; TRY 3 BROTHERS

Robert Lewis Gardner, York Springs R. 2, charged with turning off his car lights to avoid arrest, contributing to the delinquency of a minor, and furnishing intoxicants to a minor, was found guilty on all counts by an Adams County jury Monday afternoon. The jury spent an hour in its deliberations.

The verdict was taken by the court during a brief halt in the trial of Edward Eugene, Frank, Glenn and Haskell C. Wallen, Franklintown, on charges of burglary and larceny.

All three brothers are charged with burglarizing Dale's Tire Shop, near Gettysburg, November 10, 1952, and Bob's Diner, York Springs, November 20, 1952.

Had Loot Before Report

Police recovered part of the loot taken from Bob's Diner before the loss was reported to them, according to testimony given in the case.

Among the articles police said they found in the garage at the Wallen home in Franklintown was a rifle. When Robert A. The numbers checked and the rifle was returned to Thompson.

Robert A. Thompson told the jury that a back door was forced at his diner in York Springs and three guns were missing — a rifle and two shotguns. Robert E. Thompson, Biglerville, said his investigation when he opened his father's diner on the morning of last November 21 showed, besides the guns, 65 cartons of cigarettes, either in the form of cigarettes or money, gone from a vending machine; a quantity of money stolen from a record playing machine and about $15 in change removed from a drawer. Mrs. Robert Thompson was also called to testify.

Tried To Trade Tires

Dale Lawver, Biglerville, testified to finding a window broken at his tire shop, finding two 6.00 by 15 Seiberling tires removed, along with a quantity of articles and money from vending machines.

youths had been to the gas station and offered to trade two 6.00 by 15 tires for 6.00 by 16 tires.

State Policeman David K. James and Corporal Frank Yercavage told of going to the Wallen home in Franklinton November 20 to begin their investigation. On November 21 they talked to Edward Wallen, and when they asked to search the trunk of his car found it was locked. Edward claimed Frank had the key. Further search showed the Thompson rifle to be lying beside the car wrapped in a coat. When police had the trunk of the Edward Wallen car opened November 23 they found two tires in it marked by stickers bearing the name of Dale's Tire Shop, plus 31 cartons of cigarettes and a number of other articles.

Blame "Phil and Jack"
Edward Wallen told the jury and previously told police he knew nothing about it. He said he had lent the car to Frank who had not returned the trunk key to him. Frank this morning in court said he knew nothing about the matter, that Haskell had told him to ask Griffie about buying the tires. He said he had never seen them before. He added that he had seen some of the articles in the garage and left this section partially because he did not want to get involved in something he knew nothing about. He went first to West Virginia and then to Detroit.

Haskell began his testimony just before noon. He told the jury he knew nothing of the stolen articles in his garage, said two young men whom he had met and knew only by the name of Phil and Jack had asked to use the Wallen garage for storage. He said he did not know whether they placed the articles there or not.

The jury hearing the Wallen case includes: William Barbour, Aspers; Elvin Bream, Hanover R. 4; Mrs. Isabelle Knowles, Littlestown R. 2; Mrs. Alice Kugler, Fairfield; Mrs. Esther Mackley, Littlestown; Howard T. Maring, 327 Baltimore St.; Emma S. Rhoads, Gettysburg R. 4; Holbert Riley, 200 W. Middle St.; Robert Snyder, Gardners R. D.; Bruce B. Amended Reply Is Filed By Newsham

That The United Telephone Company is attempting to limit its liability for negligence was the summary of an amended reply to the new matter in a recent telephone company answer which was filed today by Dr. Richard C. Newsham.

By a stipulation of counsel, Dr. Newsham charged in his amended reply that the provision under the heading "Application for Service" on file with the Pennsylvania Public Utility Commission in the defendant's new matter is a rule or regulation of The United Telephone Company of Pennsylvania attempting to limit its liability for negligence.

The local veterinarian has filed a $5,000 action against the telephone company claiming damages because he was not listed in the veterinarians' column in the classified section of the phone book and the word veterinarian did not appear behind his name in the regular listing of Gettysburg numbers.

FEDERAL HELP ON C-D CHANGED

The Adams County Civil Defense headquarters has just received the Federal Matching Fund Regulations for the 1953-1954 fiscal year. Civil Defense Director William G. Weaver announced. The total allocation of funds for the state is $117,192 and can be used only for warning device systems, health and special weapons, communication, training and education, rescue services and welfare. Fire engines and fire fighting equipment are not included this year.

As in the past requests can be made only by political subdivisions such as the county, boroughs or townships. There is a difference over former years in that after a request has been approved, the subdivision making the request will purchase and pay for the approved article and then be reimbursed for one-half the cost. There will be no purchases made directly by the Federal Civil Defense Administration.

Adams County has benefited considerably in the past by this program, a total of $48,763 being allocated for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1953. This was matched by local funds. The main item secured was the county-wide radio system now in use by county fire departments. New fire trucks, a rescue truck and miscellaneous fire fighting tools were also secured.

Municipal

500,000-gallon standpipe and a 1,000,000-gallon reservoir.

Need New Mains
He also urged a long range program to cover replacement of present four- and some old six-inch mains with six- and eight-inch mains to give better pressure and fire protection. The program should be projected over a period of years and possibly consist of replacement as streets are resurfaced in the community. The cost of the replacement will be about $17,000.

The engineering firm and municipal management, the company managing the local authority were asked to work out detailed plans for the new construction report at the next meeting.

A request was received from Gettysburg College to have all of its properties placed on a single meter. The college was asked to submit a plan on how the single meter plan could be accomplished and present it for consideration to the authority.

Discuss Cyclopedia Lease
The authority agreed to exchange a small section of land, on which the 1906 sewer plant was constructed, to Joseph E. Codori in return for $1 and a 20-foot right of way for mains over his properties.

The authority discussed selling or granting a long term lease to the U. S. Government for land at the reservoir and Cyclopedia when the present Cyclopedia lease expires in 1957. The Department of Interior wishes to add a heating plant and office to the Cyclopedia and install a parking lot. The Authority learned. At present it leases only the spot on which the Cyclopedia is located plus its entrance.

The land adjacent to the Cyclopedia could be leased or sold without affecting the reservoir or standpipe in any way, and the engineering firm recommended that the authority grant the lease or sell the land to the government.

STOCKS LOWER

NEW YORK (AP)—The stock market was lower today but there were ample signs of a recovery tendency. The decline at the most went to around a point with plus signs small. Many leading issues—especially in the railroads—held unchanged for long periods.

"A TRUE POEM"

It's not how it is written . . . or the grammar it involves . . . but what a poem has to say . . . and what heartache it solves . . . the flowery phrases help a lot . . . just as they really should . . . but what counts most of all is if . . . it does somebody good . . . the rhyme is most important too . . . as is sincerity . . . and tender thought no doubt convey . . . the meaning to degree . . . to meter holds attention and makes reading just a breeze . . . and words with simple meaning are . . . the words that always please . . . but one thing does more than the rest . . . to help the thoughts impart . . . and that is if it's written from . . . within the poet's heart.

The public party will begin at 8 o'clock. Prizes will include pre-Thanksgiving features.

Allen King was the leader at the meeting of the Christian Endeavor Society of St. John's Lutheran Church on Sunday evening. The evening's program was as follows: Hymn singing with Miss Evelyn Harget as accompanist; Scripture, John 1:1-14; poem, "How To Get Along Together," Allen King; receiving of the offering; hymn by the group; topic "Shall We Forgive Our Enemies," discussed by Fred W. King; C. E. benediction in unison. Linda Strevig and Sally Forry will be the leaders for the meeting next Sunday at 6 p.m.

Eagles Women To Meet
Members of the Senior Choir of St. Paul's Lutheran Church will rehearse on Thursday evening at 7 o'clock, instead of 7:30 p.m. as previously announced due to the presentation of "The Torchbearers" at the high school that evening.

AF TELLS OF SECRET PLANE

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Air Force disclosed last night some details of an "extremely high speed" experimental plane which looks like a huge dagger covered with pinholes, but it said security forbids saying how it has performed.

The plane, called the X3, was built by the Santa Monica, Calif., division of Douglas Aircraft Co., and has been under test for about a year.

It has a fuselage length of 66 1/4 feet, slightly greater than that of the familiar DC3 passenger plane. But its wing span is only 22 feet 8 inches—less than the span of the DC3's tail section.

Because of this short span and a long, tapered nose, the X3 has been nicknamed the Flying Stiletto. More than 850 pinholes dot the outer surfaces as part of a system for measuring pressures.

AGED SLAYER TRIES SUICIDE

DIGNE, France (AP)—Gaston Dominiel, quarried old mountain farmer who has confessed the triple slaying of an English family 15 months ago, tried to throw himself over a railroad bridge Monday during a reenactment of the crime.

Police grabbed the bearded, 76-year-old farmer before he could carry out his apparent attempt at suicide.

Accused by two of his own sons, the old man was charged formally today with the slaying on Aug. 5, 1952, of British nutrition expert Sir Jack Drummond, Lady Drummond and their 11-year-old daughter.

The Drummonds, holidaying in France, were slain at their roadside camp site 200 yards from Dominiel's stone farm home near here in southeastern France.

Police said the old man broke down and confessed the killings after his sons' accusations and 48 hours of police grilling.

Out Of The Past

From the Files of the Star and Sentinel and
The Gettysburg Times

FIFTY YEARS AGO

The Butchering Season: Butchering has begun and the squeal of the porker can be heard daily. A number of our citizens have heavy hogs. "Mac" Hardagen, residing on the alley in the rear of Baltimore street, leads the van with two "beauties" that will now pull the scales to the thousand mark. Next in order comes the Rhine hogs, four in number, the combined weight of which will reach nearly 2,000 pounds.

Rider-Long: A pretty wedding was celebrated at St. Joseph's Catholic Church, in this place, at a Nuptial Mass on Wednesday morning in the presence of a large number of friends and relatives of the happy couple. The contracting parties were Miss Bernadette Long, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Long, of East Main street, this place, and Mr. Clayton Rider, of Gettysburg, Pa. The ceremony was performed by Rev. J. O. Hayden. The bridesmaid was Mrs. James A. Slagle, and the best-man was Mr. James A. Slagle.

Mendelsohn's wedding march was rendered by Miss Euphemia Tyson. After the ceremony the happy couple were driven to the home of the bride's parents where an excellent dinner was served. Mr. and Mrs. Rider will reside in Gettysburg. EMMITSBURG CHRONICLE.

Young-Coxe: Charles Morris Young, son of Christian Young, of near this place, and who has won considerable fame as an artist, will be united in marriage on Wednesday to Miss Elizabeth Middleton Cox, of Drifton, Pa. The ceremony will take place in St. James Church, at Drifton.

Marriages: Harner-Reifsnider—Nov. 15, at Littlestown, by Rev. C. P. Bastian. Clarence N. Harner, of Kingsdale, to Miss Cora Reifsnider, of Carroll county, Md.

Dick-Addlesperger: Nov. 15, near Iron Springs, by Wm. H. Low, Esq. James S. Dick to Maggie M. Addlesperger, both of Hamilton township.

Hill-Henning: Nov. 11, at White Post, Va., by Rev. D. L. Reid, J. M. Lowry Hill, of Fairfield, to Miss Emma L. Henning, of White Post, Virginia.

Martin-Nary: Nov. 12, at East Berlin, by Rev. Paul M. Spangler, Edward Martin, of Straban township, to Miss Ella Nary, of Tyrone township.

Rural Carriers Banquet: The Rural Free Delivery Carriers Association held their first annual banquet and business meeting at Hotel Gettysburg Saturday evening.

The name of the Society, as determined by the business meeting is "The Rural Letter Carriers Association of Adams County."

It was nearing the midnight hour before the mail men had finished the last course of their excellent meal and in consequence there were no speeches made.

The occasion was a most enjoyable one and all present expressed themselves as highly pleased with the manner in which "Mine Host Zinn" and his excellent help served the banquet.

Foot Ball: The College foot ball team scored for the first time this season on Saturday when they played the Steelton Y.M.C.A. team. The College boys played an excellent game but were slightly outplayed by their heavy opponents, the game ending with the score of 6 to 5 in Steelton's favor.

Was Out On The Town: G. E. Harvie, a typo, who had been working at the PROGRESS office for the past week, became slightly inebriated Saturday evening and proceeded "to do the town." In his anxiety to exhibit his physical ability he, without the slightest provocation, struck Pinkney Lyles on the mouth with such force as to knock his front teeth loose. Young Lyles informed his father, the Rev. W. O. Lyles, who had a warrant sworn out for Harvie's arrest. It being late Saturday night no arrest was made and on Sunday Harvie left town and his whereabouts is unknown.

Off on Lecturing Tour: J. Warren Gilbert left Thursday to give his illustrated and descriptive lecture "Gettysburg in War and Peace." Mr. Gilbert's wife accompanied him,

Today's Talk

By GEORGE MATTHEW ADAMS

THE AFTERGLOW

I am blessed with a home that stands upon a quiet corner in a big city, but with trees close to my study windows that seem almost to talk to me, so intimately do they crowd my sight and inspire me throughout all the seasons of the year. But autumn is my favorite.

Just now the grounds below me, and the view from every window where I read and write, present a picture of gold. The maples, especially, are wrapped in golden foliage. All through the day I look out and note the sunshine bathing each leaf, and the ground where the leaves have fallen is like a blanket of gold spread out. But, in the late afternoon, when the last waves of light creep into the West, I note a wonderful afterglow in my room and I just sit silently in a mood of wonder and inner joy.

The afterglow of life! Shakespeare spoke of life as a "walking shadow." It's like that now as its golden garments flicker in my room. A picture of the afterglow of life itself as the lengthened years present richness, peace and quiet.

In my brief weeks during the summer months at my island retreat I am always inspired by the afterglow of the sunken sun in the West. Often this glow spreads over the entire sky in a spectacle of great beauty in mild coloring.

Also, we note a spiritual afterglow when a dear friend leaves us after a happy meeting. I used to feel this after many a talk with the late Bob Davis and always after John Charles Thomas had sung "The Lord's Prayer" at The Players in New York. There is that same afterglow that sweeps through one's inner consciousness after the inspiring talks by Bishop Sheen on the TV.

We have all experienced the stimulus of a magnetic personality as its possessor has entered a room, and then felt the afterglow at the departure of such a one. Something very wonderful—something that all of us can hope may be ours!

Tomorrow Mr. Adams will talk on the subject: "Yesterday." Protected, 1953, George Matthew Adams Service

PATIENT GARDEN
The garden wears a patient look. The trees of leaves are bare. Now flowerless is every nook. With silence everywhere.

The song birds' nests are empty all.
The lawn is hard and brown.
The hollyhocks along the wall
To sleep have settled down.

If things in nature suffer pain,
As human beings do,
Their quiet patience makes it plain
We should be patient, too.

From every tree and plant and grass
That wait for spring's return,
That pain and suffering will pass
From year to year I learn.

STEEL AND CIO
OFFICIALS TOUR
OHIO PLANTS

CLEVELAND (AP)—Top officials of U. S. Steel and the CIO United Steelworkers set out together today on a strictly experimental grass roots tour of half a dozen Ohio steel plants.

By this novel method, they hope to find a common ground for settling the little issues that sometimes swell into big ones and cause major strikes in the basic steel industry.

Heading the touring party will be Benjamin F. Fairless, chairman of U. S. Steel, and David J. McDonald, president of the steelworkers union. Top aides of both will accompany them.

Plant Tours
"Many of the problems that reach our desk arise on the local level," Fairless explained at a joint company-union press conference last night. "We hope this will be the beginning of many such plant visits."

"Our industrial relations system simply has to work and work better," added McDonald. "The machinery for settling local disputes sometimes strips a gear. We want to find out how to improve this system."

Similar tours are planned in the Pittsburgh, Chicago and other areas within the next few weeks.

ASK COURT TO END COLOR LINE

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Supreme Court has been asked to strike down at once segregation of Negro and white pupils in public schools as being in violation of two amendments to the Constitution.

A brief filed yesterday by attorneys for Negro parents in four states—Kansas, South Carolina, Virginia and Delaware—declared the 14th Amendment had the broad purpose of "obliteration of race and color distinctions."

A brief in a case applying to the District of Columbia said segregation violates the Fifth Amendment, which says no one shall be deprived of life, liberty or property without due process of law.

The briefs were filed as a preliminary to reargument, scheduled to begin Dec. 7, on five segregation cases. The expectation is that any decision by the court will affect other states which require complete or partial segregation of the races in public schools.

POLIO VACCINE

By ALTON L. BLAKESLEE

Associated Press Science Reporter
NEW YORK (AP)—A hope-laden polio vaccine will be given to probably one million school children—in second grades only—beginning Feb. 8 in an effort to learn whether polio has been conquered.

Official details of a unique nationwide medical test were announced yesterday by the National Foundation for Infantile Paralysis.

The children will get three successive shots of a vaccine made of killed polio virus and triple-tested for safety.

The vaccine was developed by Dr. Jonas E. Salk of the University of Pittsburgh. It will be given to second graders in public, private and parochial schools in some 200 U. S. counties—none officially named as yet.

er the vaccine is a success.

Success will be assured if these youngsters have less paralytic polio, or none, compared with unvaccinated children of the first through third grades in those same counties.

The answer won't be known until some time in 1955 when careful scientific checkups have been completed, said Basil O'Connor, foundation president.

If the vaccine does really protect, then large amounts could be made available for children of all ages in 1955, O'Connor said.

The counties and states for the tests, costing the foundation 7½ million dollars, are still being chosen.

BLOOMSBURG (AP)—A 38-year-old man was held without bail today after pleading guilty to the shooting of a neighbor woman he said "hexed" his family.

The woman, 55-year-old Mrs. Anna Hartzel, was in a critical condition from two gunshot wounds in the chest. Police said she was shot by Andrew Shaffer Jr. while she was doing the family wash on the back porch of her home on the northern edge of Bloomsburg.

In a written statement, police said Shaffer blamed Mrs. Hartzel as "the one who is causing all the trouble," referring to the supposed hex. Shaffer is married and the father of four children.

Because the bassoon lends itself to comic effects it has been called the humorist of the orchestra.

Bullet Cagers In Exhibition With Camp Ritchie Wednesday; Lions Club Sponsoring Game

Local basketball fans will be given a preview of the Gettysburg College squad Wednesday evening when the Bullets play an exhibition game with Camp Ritchie, Md., on the college floor.

The game, which will start at 8 o'clock, is being sponsored by the Gettysburg Lions Club and all proceeds will go to the Charity Fund of the club. General admission will be $1. No reserved seats will be sold. All college students will be admitted free of charge.

The Bullets started workouts two weeks ago preparatory to opening their regular season schedule here with Hofstra on Saturday evening, December 5.

Coach Henry Bream is pleased with his squad to date. The team will have a little more height than that of last year and with the added experience should give a good account of itself against all opponents. Shooting accuracy, speed and hustle will compose the main forte of the Bullets.

Only one regular from last year, Bob Pizolato, will be missing and his absence will be felt. He was a particularly fine one-handed shot and a fine driver.

Johnny Habeeb, 5-10, leading scorer last year with 341 points; Joe Lang, 5-10; Bill Snyder, 6-2; Jack Keller, 6-4, and Les Eckman, 6-5, will form the nucleus for the squad.

One of the most promising of the newcomers is Dick Hockenbury, 6-2 sophomore, who has been showing brilliant back-board work.

Other promising sophomores include Joe Bierly, 6-3; Hugh McIntyre, 6-2; George Sipp, 6-2, who is still playing soccer and will report later; Rudy Featherstone, 5-10, and Bert Avis, 5-9, now a member of the football squad.

Four additional varsity squad members are back. They are Ed Perren, 5-10; Tom Lunn, 6-1; Bill Miles, 5-10, and Phil Guarneselli, 5-11.

In addition Coach Bream has Bruce Mahon, 6-2, returning after a tour of duty with the army, and Jim Sevebeck, 6-1, a transfer from the U. S. Naval Academy.

MET OBSERVES 70TH BIRTHDAY

NEW YORK (AP) — The Metropolitan Opera celebrated its 70th anniversary last night with a rebuilt auditorium, a bigger-than-ever, but dignified audience and a modernized "Faust"—the same opera that opened the Met 70 years ago.

The opera performance was a success, musically and production-wise.

The new house arrangement was a success because it provided more seats and bigger returns in the box office, with seats selling for up to $30.

And the Metropolitan's long campaign to turn the opening night back into a cultural occasion, and to suppress the exhibitionists who got out of hand in some past years, appeared to be succeeding too.

For the opening of the Met's 69th season—there was no season in 1897 because of a fire in the opera house—Manager Rudolf Bing gave opera fans a brand-new version of the Gounod classic which opened the venerable opera house in 1883.

He even moved the time of the opera from the Middle Ages to the middle of the 19th century, with new costumes to match—including a Mephistopheles in tails.

More Than 25 Bears Killed Opening Day

HARRISBURG (AP) — Hunters chalked up more than 25 bears killed the first day of the 1953 big game season.

The game commission, however, expected that the first day's kill yesterday would be considerably increased when all reports are tabulated.

More than a score of bear were reported killed in Potter County. Three other bears were killed in nearby Lycoming County.

The biggest bear of the day, weighing 300 pounds, was killed by Willis Whitting, Oil City, in the Salmon Creek Area. John Santa, Charleroi, hunting in Potter County bagged one weighing between 275 and 300 pounds.

Columbia Snares Conference Title

Columbia High School gained the championship of the Conference of the Roses when Manheim Township defeated the Manheim Central grid-ers 19-18 Monday evening.

The intricate point system gives Columbia the title by a point. Columbia and Palmyra had finished with identical 7-0 records.

Biglerville High finished fifth in the 10-team conference.

Ujobai To Get Second Maxwell Award Monday

Joe Ujobai, one of the eight seniors who will play their final football game for Gettysburg College here Saturday against Franklin and Marshall, was named Monday as the Maxwell Club Award winner for his performance against Bucknell on Saturday.

Ujobai will be honored at the Club's luncheon next Monday at Philadelphia.

This is the second time the Bullet backfield ace has been named the award winner, having gained the honor last year for his performance against Western Maryland. Club officials point out it is extremely rare for an athlete to be named twice.

The former Phoenixville High School star is the state's current top scorer with 91 points and has gained 606 yards this season.

Accompanying Ujobai to Philadelphia next Monday will be Coaches Johnny Vovincin and Jack Shainline, Athletic Director Henry T. Bream, and Jim Tarman, publicity director.

DIPLOMATS AND BULLETS MEET IN 56TH GAME

LANCASTER, Pa. — Franklin and Marshall College will kind up its 1953 football campaign in foreign territory for the first time in 14 years Saturday when it clashes with Gettysburg, its traditional rival, on the Gettysburg gridiron.

F&M's appearance Saturday in Gettysburg for the finale is the first in an arrangement made last year in which the two teams are now meeting on a home and home basis. Prior to this year, F&M and Gettysburg have been meeting in Lancaster on Thanksgiving Day since 1890, with the exception of 1939, when the two ancient foes played in Gettysburg. The game was shifted from Thanksgiving Day, back to the Saturday before, last fall when the teams tangled in Lancaster.

This year's battle will be the 56th annual engagement between the two Central Pennsylvania rivals, and the series is one of the oldest in the United States. The Bullets, who hold a two-game edge in the series with 26 victories against 24 defeats and 5 ties, will be the favorites to win again Saturday.

The Gettysburg crew has forged ahead in the series during the past ten years with a record of 7, 2, and 1 against the Dips. During the previous ten years the Diplomats held the upper hand with 6 victories against 3 defeats and 1 tie.

Since the series was resumed following World War II, in 1948, F&M has won only one game out of 5 played, in 1950 when the Dips posted an undefeated and untied season.

The Bullets, who have had one of their best seasons in recent years, appear to pack too much manpower for the Dips. However, upsets have been known to occur before in this series, and Coach Woody Spangue hopes to have his club ready to take advantage of any breaks that might come its way.

HOME COOKING

is one of the absolute necessities of life. It is not a luxury. Even though economic conditions might change, there will be the revenues from the agriculture and food processing industries of the county. It is the most stable business in the world."

Dr. Oyler called attention to the need for training technicians for the food processing industry, pointing out that "the application of science to food has not been scratched. Today investigations are being conducted on the feasibility of processing foods by irradiation. Tomorrow they may be seeking to learn how to change the molecular composition of foods so that they will contribute to the regulation of human health or give better immunity to disease. The food field is wide open to the imagination of future food technologists."

He described how the Knouse Foods and other processing plants continuously use laboratory tests to keep their product at the highest quality. In the field of sugar use alone, Knouse plants make more than 15,000 tests in the course of a year.

He described his work with the Air Force in determining food material that would be best for flight crews while flying at high altitudes. Animals and humans were placed in decompression chambers to simulate flying at great heights during the tests to determine the flight ratings.

President John Treter presided at the meeting with 56 present. Vice President Roy Hammond introduced the speaker and announced plans for a Ladies Night Christmas program December 14. Mares Sherman led group singing and Dr. Jacob Heikinen was pianist.

Fitzkee May Be Mat Coach At York

Ronald E. Fitzkee, a former athlete at Red Lion High and Gettysburg College, was recommended for the position of wrestling coach at York High School at a meeting Monday night of the Advisory Council of Athletics for the York schools.

Favorable action on the recommendation is expected to be taken at the regular meeting of the York School Board Thursday night. Fitzkee will succeed N. Dale Uffelman who has resigned from the teaching profession to enter private business.

Six G-Burg Field Hockey Stars Named

Gettysburg College placed three players on the first team and three on the second team for the National Field Hockey Tournament to be held at Hunter College, New York, at the Mid-East Field Hockey tournament held Saturday at Wilson College, Chambersburg.

TELLS OF CARE

and their happiness was a joy to see. They loved being with each other. They sense that they are inferior to their normal brothers and sisters and other normal children. Here they were with their own.

"In the summer they couldn't understand why the center was closed. They wanted to go to school. But the carry-over from the skills they had learned helped them through the summer months."

"If your county society is to function well, it needs a great deal of support from the general public. Parents of retarded children have their hands full handling their own children. The interested person, who does not such a problem, must give his time and efforts to see that these children receive the help they need."

Cites Size of Problem

"The parents of retarded children likewise must not be backward. The problem is more than they can handle alone. It is not something to be ashamed of—it is not the fault of the parents or the child. There are 2,000,000 feeble minded in the U. S. and they all need special care. They should get it."

We have had a tendency here to hide the children as it were. But now that attitude is changing. We are bringing the problem out into the open to provide these children with the training and education they need."

Dr. George A. W. Stauffer, supervisor of special education for the county, told the group that "possibly one of the reasons this problem is so little recognized is because 55 per cent of the children who complete fifth grade drop out of school before the end of high school, so the problem apparently disappears."

"There are four groups of retarded children. They are the dull, who range from those who are only a little slower than normal, down to those who need special classes. Possibly eight per cent of the youngsters could go into this classification, out of the one-fourth of all youngsters who have intelligence quotients of less than 90. Below those who need special classes would be the group who cannot be educated, but who can be trained, for whom day care centers are definitely needed and then less than one per cent of the total would be the hopeless who can neither be trained nor educated."

40 At Meeting
"The crowding of our schools makes the problem of the dull child even more acute. And by giving the youngsters needing special education a break we give all youngsters a break, for the highly intelligent must be held back to allow the slower youngsters to keep up with them."

Various speakers pointed out that sums spent to train retarded children "saves money in the long run. Without training many will remain wards of the state their entire life, while with training they could become self-supporting adults."

Among the 40 present for the meeting were a number of supervising principals of county schools and Gettysburg Superintendent Dr. Lloyd C. Keefe.

Meet Next In January
At present, it was pointed out, there is only one school in the county with a special course for slower children. Littlestown has such a special course on the secondary level. There are no special classes on the elementary level in the county.

Next meeting of the group will be held in January when reports will be presented by the committee seeking a room for the day care center, and report will be presented on the certification of a teacher, to be paid by the state, for the center.

MINOR LEAGUE DRAFT LISTS GO TO MAJORS

NEW YORK (AP) — The major league ball clubs have received their Christmas bargain catalogs in the form of the minor league draft list.

For the next two weeks they will have a chance to decide whether any of the 1,500 players available at cut rate prices are worth a gamble.

Since all of the clubs now maintain elaborate scouting systems the quality of the merchandise is pretty well known in advance. Prices range from $15,000 for available players in the Pacific Coast League down to $2,000 for a Class D player.

Some Familiar Names

Some of the names are familiar. They include Bob Dillinger who at one time was sold by the St. Louis Browns for $100,000 and four players: Bobo Holoman, the only no-hit pitcher in the American League in 1953; Gene Bearden, who won 20 games for Cleveland's 1948 pennant winners, and Dick Sisler, late of the St. Louis Cardinals and Philadelphia Phillies.

Dillinger won the Pacific Coast batting title the past season and is apt to be picked up. So is Rance Pless of Minneapolis who won the Southern Association batting title in 1952 and who hit .322 with the Millers the past season.

The draft will be held at the majors' winter meeting in Atlanta Nov. 30. As a general rule only one player can be drafted from each club. The first Baltimore Orioles will have first pick, followed by Pittsburgh and on up both leagues in the order of their 1953 finish. Last year the majors drafted 11 players for $120,000. Six stayed the full season.

TRAVEL GROUP

attend the banquet. Tickets sell for $2.50 per plate to non-Chamber members.

Mrs. Helen Snyder, Chamber secretary, announced that letters explaining the Council's objectives and need for membership have been mailed to more than 200 local businessmen.

According to Smith: "It will be our job to convince the businessmen of Gettysburg that in the long run membership in the council will materially aid them. In order to do more—we will have to spend more."

"This is one time when the businessman will actually see the good his money is accomplishing," Charles B. Bender added.

Membership Chairman Garfinkle will meet with sectional leaders next Monday at which time a report on the progress of the drive will be announced and a list of members published.

Special Committee
The Travel Council authorized a "Know Your Gettysburg" committee whose initial project—along with the cooperation of Battlefield guides—will be to acquaint local citizens, by dint of numerous expense-free tours, with the history of the battlefield. George Olinger was appointed chairman of the group, and Mrs. Amos Beinhart, formerly of Palm Springs, Fla., and Sam Kessel, assistants.

John Riddle, superintendent of the Gettysburg National Cemetery, was named chairman of the committee which will study the possibility of presenting a local "historical pageant" at a future date. John D. Lippy Jr. and Charles Weaver were selected as advisors.

But that discussion, he related, was not until after the Senate had confirmed White's promotion to the International Monetary Fund.

"Secretary of the Treasury Vinson consulted with Atty. Gen. Tom Clark and other government officials," Truman related. "When the results of these consultations were reported to me, the conclusion was reached that the appointment should be allowed to take its normal course. The final responsibility for this decision, of course, was mine. The reason for the decision was that the charges which had been made to the FBI against Mr. White also involved many other persons. . . . It was of great importance to the nation that this investigation be continued in order to prove or disprove these charges and to determine if still other persons were implicated."

Resents Reflection On Vinson
He said any unusual action in connection with the White appointment "might well have alerted all the persons involved to the fact that the investigation was under way and thus endanger the success of the investigation."

At one point in his speech, Truman said the "wild imputations of disloyalty which Mr. Brownell has made" were directed not only at him but against Vinson.

"No man I ever knew was a more patriotic American," Truman said, adding that "I deeply resent these cowardly insinuations against one who is dead."

Johnny Beegle, son of Dr. and Mrs. D. Luther Beegle, Emmitsburg, and a former track and basketball star at Gettysburg High School, was a member of the University of Maryland freshman cross-country team which won the freshman honors in the 45th annual IC4A championships at New York, Monday.

Beegle finished fourth among the Maryland entries and 18th in the field.

ASPERS MAN IS NEW WINNER IN GRID CONTEST

First prize in the sixth in the series of weekly football prediction contests sponsored by The Gettysburg Times and 14 cooperating merchants was won by Lewis Warren, Aspers R. 1.

Truman R. Eyer, Flora Dale, was runner up, and John Paul, 343 Carlisle St., and Howard Harman, Gettysburg R. 3, tied for third place.

Warren selected the correct teams in 12 of 14 weekend collegiate grid contests and decided on a feature game score of 27 to win first prize of a $15 merchandise certificate. Eyer also chose 12 winning teams, but his feature score of 32 was a far cry from the 7-0 victory of Chambersburg over Mechanicsburg. Second place is worth a $7.50 merchandise award.

Paul and Harman will both receive a $2.50 award for selecting 11 of 14 correct teams and identical feature scores of 20. A total of 217 participated in last week's football prediction contest.

Feature game of this week's contest—Notre Dame against Iowa—along with 14 other college games appeared in a full-page advertisement in Monday's Times.

Brownell Lied

of the Board of Directors of the International Monetary Fund, a promotion Brownell said was approved after the White House received allegations of disloyalty against White.

His Explanation
In describing the White case, Truman said a lengthy FBI report on "certain accusations of espionage" reached the White House in December 1945.

"Among the many names mentioned, I now find, was that of Harry Dexter White, who had been in the Treasury Department for many years and who was at that time an assistant secretary of the Treasury," he said.

He added that as best he can determine an FBI report "specifically discussing activities of Harry Dexter White was brought to my attention" early in February 1946. He said it was delivered to him by Brig. Gen. Harry Vaughan, his military aide, and also "brought to my personal attention by Secretary of State Byrnes."

Decided To Guard FBI Probe
Truman said he sent a copy of the report to White's immediate superior, the late Fred Vinson, then secretary of the Treasury. He said he also discussed the matter with Vinson as well as Byrnes.

But that discussion, he related, was not until after the Senate had confirmed White's promotion to the International Monetary Fund.

"Secretary of the Treasury Vinson consulted with Atty. Gen. Tom Clark and other government officials," Truman related. "When the results of these consultations were reported to me, the conclusion was reached that the appointment should be allowed to take its normal course. The final responsibility for this decision, of course, was mine. The reason for the decision was that the charges which had been made to the FBI against Mr. White also involved many other persons. . . . MUM FACULTY MAY COST SOME SCHOOLS MONEY

BANGOR, Maine (AP)—Sen. McCarthy (R-Wis.) says colleges that won't fire uncooperative witnesses stand to lose financially under legislation he is preparing.

The Senate Investigations subcommittee chairman said his staff has been instructed to draft a bill that would remove tax exemptions from foundation funds given to colleges and universities which employ faculty members who invoke the Fifth Amendment.

The Fifth Amendment to the U. S. Constitution, permitting individuals to refuse to testify on grounds of possible self-incrimination, has been used numerous times by witnesses questioned by McCarthy's committee.

McCarthy said "of course many foundations and their expenditures are very fine. This legislation wouldn't affect their good work. But if a foundation gave money to an educational institution that kept on its teaching staff Fifth Amendment personnel or espionage agents, it would lose its tax exemption and any contributions to the foundation by individuals no longer would be deductible for income tax purposes."

Could Affect Harvard
McCarthy said Harvard University—"once a great university"—was one institution receiving funds of the type which his proposed bill could affect.

McCarthy said he told Harvard president Nathan M. Pusey that Harvard professor Wendell Furry had refused to answer questions about Communist association. He said Pusey replied that freedom-of-thought considerations prevent discharge of personnel merely for making use of the Fifth Amendment.

McCarthy said his investigations subcommittee will open public hearings Nov. 24 on possible Communist infiltration at the Ft. Monmouth, N. J., radar laboratory.

FATHER OF TV DIES

MONTCLAIR, N. J. (AP)—Funeral services were held Monday for Dr. Herbert Eugene Ives, noted physicist-scientist often described as the "father of television."

Dr. Ives, 71, died Friday night at his home in Upper Montclair. He retired in 1947 after almost 30 years with the Bell Telephone Laboratories in New York.

During his career, he invented numerous devices for use in the fields of color photography and photo-engraving.

"Brassard" which now refers to a badge on the upper arm originally meant a piece of armor for the upper arm.

Sale Of Bicycle Ends Noted Era

AUSTIN, Tex. (AP)—When Dr. D. A. Penick sold his bicycle for $10 to a 12-year-old boy it marked the end of an era around the University of Texas campus.

Dr. Penick, the first and only tennis coach Texas ever had, produced 28 doubles and 23 South west Conference champions in 38 years. Among his pupils were Wilmer Allison, Berkeley Bell and Bruce Barnes.

The doctor, now 84, rode the bicycle around the campus for 20 years. Dr. Penick hadn't ridden his bike in some time and his wife thought there was too much traffic around.

SEEK REMEDY IN TAX CASES

WASHINGTON (AP)—House tax fraud investigators Monday urged "immediate and drastic remedies" for costly delays and duplication of effort in federal tax lawsuits.

They asserted that existing divided responsibility for tax cases between the Treasury and Justice departments puts "undue burdens" on taxpayers and should be revised to give the Internal Revenue Service greater authority.

In the second of a series of reports on a two-year investigation of the Internal Revenue Service, a ways and means subcommittee said it found duplication of effort "in every activity" in which the Tax Division of the Justice Department participated.

"The consequent delays both prejudice the government's chances in litigation and impose undue burdens on the taxpayer," the report stated.

"The waste of manpower reduces the number of cases which the government can litigate."

"Effective coordination of tax policy is not being achieved."

The subcommittee named no names in its report. A featured witness during its hearings was T. Lamar Caudle, former assistant attorney general in charge of the

DESCRIBES NEW PRISON SETUP

HARRISBURG (AP)—Pennsylvania's new prison setup is moving to break up "beds of discontent" that resulted in riots last January at the Western State and Rockview penitentiaries.

Arthur T. Prasse, state commissioner of corrections, has established classification centers at the Eastern and Western State penitentiaries to make a continuous study of prisoners.

Prasse said the new move "probably will result in a continuing reshuffling of inmates, among prisons."

Each classification unit at the two penitentiaries include a psychiatrist, vocational expert, physician, dentist, and educational director. The experts will make a continuous study of history of prisoners and their institutional records. Prasse took over the state's prison system in a reorganization authorized by the Legislature after the riots early in the year at the two prisons.

WOMAN SHOT; HOLD NEIGHBOR

BLOOMSBURG, Pa. (AP)—A woman was shot and critically wounded Monday and police took a neighbor into custody three hours later for questioning in the case.

The woman, Mrs. Annie Hartzel, 55, was felled by two shotgun blasts in the chest as she was doing the family wash on the back porch of her home on the northern edge of Bloomsburg.

Henry Muirhead, acting chief of Tax Division. In November 1951 he resigned at the request of former President Truman, who said he had "outside activities" incompatible with his official duties.

ORDNANCE CHIEF—
Maj. Gen. Emerson L. Cummings is shown in Washington after becoming Army chief of ordnance.

Bloomsburg police, immediately ordered a search started for the neighbor, Andrew Shaffer Jr., 38, for questioning in the case.

Three hours later Shaffer surrendered to Harry Fox, a former constable, a member of a posse of state and city police and neighbors. Fox said he persuaded Shaffer, after encountering him a half mile from the scene of the shooting, to remove the shells from the shotgun and surrender. Shaffer was removed to the Columbia County jail for questioning in the case.

Muirhead said that Shaffer recently suffered a nervous breakdown.

POOR WOMAN MAY INHERIT HALF-MILLION

ST. LOUIS (AP)—Mrs. Belle May McKeon, who has needed financial help from her son for about 15 years, might inherit a half-million dollars from the estate of a wealthy Pittsburgh aunt.

The 67-year-old retired stenographer lives in a small, brick tenement.

John Phelan, 46-year-old son by a previous marriage, said Sunday night his mother has been staying with relatives in St. Louis County because of her nervous condition over settlement of the 3½-million-dollar estate of an aunt, the late Mrs. Sarah M. Weller of Pittsburgh.

Mrs. McKeon was not available for comment.

Phelan said the family has been trying since last May to establish his mother's identity in the proceedings.

Was A Stenographer

Phelan said his mother came to St. Louis in 1904 and was employed as a stenographer until about 15 years ago. He is a $62 a week maintenance worker for a shirt company.

"It will be a great help for Mom to get back on her feet," he said.

Mrs. McKeon is supposed to have unearthed fading photographs and her birth certificate in the hope of proving her claim.

She had not seen her rich aunt since the 1890s. Born in a Pittsburgh hospital, she was taken to the Midwest by her mother, Mrs. Martha Mercer Wright, in 1904.

When Mrs. Weller died, a sister, Mrs. Mary Mercer Noone, Churchville, N.Y., and a brother, William S. Mercer, Lima, Ohio, each got $479,730. Mrs. McKeon may receive the same. Then the three will divide a $200,000 escrow fund.

ENDS MAKE UNIQUE SWITCH

DETROIT (AP)—Jim Doran and Dorne Dibble, Detroit Lion ends, performed a complete "about face" when they entered the pro grid ranks. Dibble was a defensive end at Michigan State but is now on offense for the Lions. Doran set an NCAA offensive record at Iowa State but now excels on defense.

DEATH PENALTY BEING ASKED FOR 2 KIDNAPPERS

KANSAS CITY (AP)—The government pressed hard today its demand for the death penalty for the kidnap-slayers of Bobby Greenlease in the second day of their trial.

Late yesterday the confession of the 41-year-old Mrs. Bonnie Heady, a respectable housewife turned drunkard, was read to the jury. It gave the grim details of how Carl Austin Hall, dope addict and ex-convict, shot to death 6-year-old Bobby soon after his abduction.

The boy's multimillionaire father Robert C. Greenlease, visibly steeled himself as he listened from a front seat in the crowded courtroom.

Ordeal For Father

Only a short time before, on the witness stand, he identified Bobby's photograph and some of his belongings. He swallowed hard. Sometimes his voice was almost inaudible.

It was the first time the public had heard the full confession, U.S. Dist. Atty. Edward Scheufler read the 26 pages.

In his opening statement for the government Scheufler had asked the death penalty for both Hall and the woman "because of the nature of the crime."

Have Pleaded Guilty

Hall and Mrs. Heady pleaded guilty at their arraignment and Scheufler told the jury, all businessmen from outside Missouri, that its sole job is to determine whether the couple should pay the supreme penalty. Under the Lindbergh kidnap law a jury must recommend the death sentence before it can be imposed.

Attorneys for Hall and Mrs. Heady said they stood on their guilty pleas but reserved the right to make insanity pleas should developments warrant. However, Roy Dietrich, president of the Kansas City Bar Assn. and court-appointed attorney for Hall, said no insanity pleas were contemplated now.

Both Dietrich and Harold Hull of Maryville, Mo., attorney for Mrs. Heady, said the defendants would not be placed on the stand. They said that they did not deny any statement made by Scheufler but they did not intend to protect the constitutional rights of the couple and offer mitigating circumstances.

The confession of Mrs. Heady told how Hall shot the little boy when he found a cord he had planned to use to strangle him was too short.

It told, too, how the couple earli-

New Handcuffs Are Put To Use Quickly

STEUBENVILLE, Ohio (AP)—A "customer" told pawn shop operator Louis Rosansky he wanted to buy a pair of handcuffs. When Rosansky produced a pair, the man pulled a gun, robbed Rosansky of $970, handcuffed him to a clothes rack and fled.

LANCASTER LIVESTOCK

LANCASTER, Pa. (AP)—Cattle 3-193, liberal receipts of local fed cattle sold at steady prices. Calves 744, good to choice 29.00-30.00. Hogs 1,188, best handweights 22.00, some selects 22.50. Sheep 383, prices barely steady on a slow market.

MANILA (AP)—Heavy, windblown rains leading a typhoon soaked the Philippine's northeast coastal area today as the big storm and its 100-mile-an-hour winds neared Luzon Island.

The typhoon was 230 miles northeast of Manila in early afternoon, moving about 13 m.p.h. toward the fertile Isabela and Cagayan shoreline area.

METUCHEN, N. J. (AP)—A shortage of critical parts today halted production of 1954 models at the Lincoln-Mercury assembly plant of the Ford Motor Co., and 2,384 workers were laid off. A plant spokesman said the length of the shutdown was indefinite.

er had been frustrated in an attempt to abduct the boy's 11-year-old sister, Virginia Sue.

Mrs. Heady appeared almost bored as Scheufler read the confession in a flat, dry voice. Only once did she appear affected when she drank herself almost into insensibility following the kidnap-slaying Sept. 28.

"I wanted to stay drunk so that my conscience wouldn't bother me," the confession read.

Her mouth twitched at that point.

COURT UPSETS PLANS OF AGED MOSSADEGH

TEHRAN, Iran (AP)—The military court trying ex-Premier Mohammed Mossadeh for treason got down to main issues today after ruling against the old man's contention that the tribunal was not competent to hear the case.

The court-martial's five judges declared themselves competent yesterday after a week of preliminary hearings, during which the 73-year-old Mossadeh held the floor for many hours with bitter, emotional arguments in his own defense.

Following the court decision, Chief Prosecutor Brig. Hossein Azemodh read the indictment charging Mossadeh with plotting against the Shah and illegally dissolving the lower house of Parliament. The death penalty was asked.

Presentation of evidence in support of the charges due to begin later today.

Mossadeh contended the Shah had no authority to dismiss him. He also demanded a jury trial on grounds that the army court could not try him because he had abolished it before his ouster as premier last Aug. 17.

The court, handing down yesterday's decision after a final debate of 4 hours and 45 minutes, also ruled itself competent to pass judgment on Gen. Taghi Riahi, former military chief of staff who is being tried with Mossadeh.

No White Uniform For This Dentist

ST. LOUIS (AP)—Dr. Roy M. Wolff, a children's dentist, told the Mid-Continent Dental Congress yesterday he wears green shoes, yellow trousers and a light-colored sports shirt at work.

The reason: When children saw him in white they thought of doctors who gave them shots and became frightened.

His two women assistants wear blue shoes, blue jumpers and white blouses. The office is decorated in pastel hues.

"It's worked wonderfully," he said. "The psychological effect is terrific."

Loses $85,000 She Carried In Paper Bag

SAN DIEGO, Calif. (AP)—Mrs. Amine Hicks, an elderly widow who says she has carried about $85,000 around in a paper sack since 1945, told police she lost it in a drugstore.

Officers, skeptical at first, said yesterday they had confirmed her story.

Mrs. Hicks told reporters she had kept the $50 and $100 bills with her at all times because she doesn't trust banks. The money was left her by her late husband, she said.

MANILA (AP)—One person was killed and five city blocks were gutted in a roaring fire which swept through the commercial district of Gumaca today, the Philippine News Service reported.

Gumaca is a port of 20,000 population in southeast Luzon.

Gas helps put the "instant" in coffee

Anytime is coffee time with quick, convenient instant coffee. And gas helped make possible this latest advance in the coffee industry. Nescafe's famous jet process explodes rich, roasted coffee into pure instant coffee, ready for your cup. This revolutionary process demands exact control of heat and atmosphere. Only economical, versatile gas provides both.

COMPANIES SERVED BY TEXAS EASTERN SERVE YOU

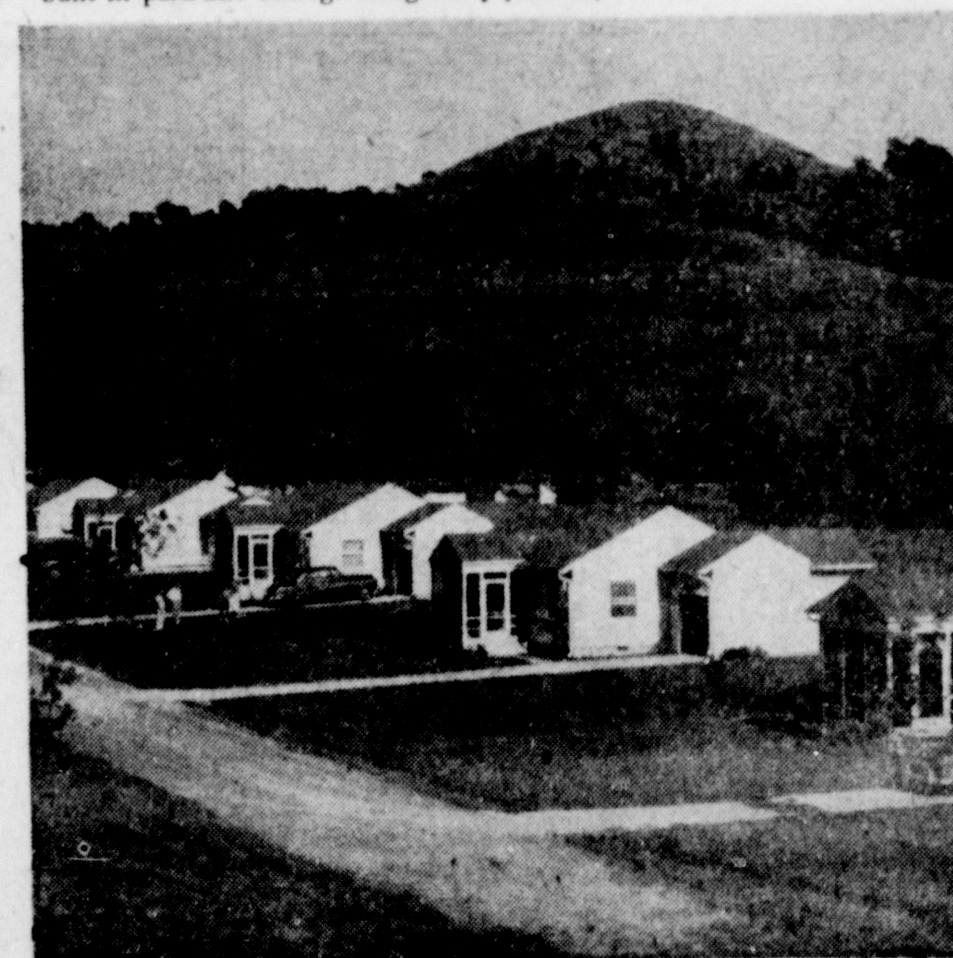

Jars are automatically filled and packed for shipment as they come from the "instant" processing ovens. Gas for the Nescafe plant of The Nestle Company at Freehold, New Jersey, is supplied by New Jersey Natural Gas Company, a customer of Texas Eastern Transmission Corporation.

Operating and maintaining the 4500-mile pipeline system, serving the Midwest, Appalachian and Eastern areas, is the everyday job of a highly skilled group of Texas Easterners. Many live in modern homes, such as those below, built in park-like settings along the pipeline system.
